"SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 23-02.1-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

5. If the child is not born during the marriage of the mother, or within three hundred days after a marriage is terminated by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, or divorce, or after a decree of separation is entered by a court, the name of the father may not be entered on the birth certificate unless:
 - a. After the child's birth, the father and the child's natural mother have married, or attempted to marry, each other by a marriage solemnized in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared invalid, and:
 - (1) He has acknowledged his paternity of the child in writing filed with the state registrar;
 - (2) With his consent, he is named as the child's father on the child's birth certificate; or
 - (3) He is obligated to support the child under a written voluntary promise or by court order;
 - b. ~~While the child is under the age of majority, he received the child into his home and openly holds out the child as his natural child;~~
 - e. After the child's birth, the child's natural mother and the father voluntarily acknowledge the child's paternity in a writing signed by both and filed with the state registrar; or
 - ~~c.~~ c. A court or other entity of competent jurisdiction has adjudicated paternity."
