REMARKS OF SENATOR SINNER

MR. PRESIDENT: It is my privilege this afternoon to pay tribute to Governor William Lewis Guy, a close family friend who was so instrumental in ushering in an era of modernization to our great state. As you all know, Governor Guy, passed away on Friday.

Bill Guy was a born leader, serving in top posts in the Boy Scouts & 4-H, as a school board president as well as several leadership positions at the North Dakota Agricultural College before he graduated in 1941. Then, as a truly dedicated American, he joined the United States Navy in 1942 and served his country through the remainder of the war.

Guy continued his service teaching at NDSU while he farmed near Amenia through the 1950s. Then, he crossed the line in 1958 and was elected to the North Dakota House of Representatives. Those of us in this body will have to forgive him for that mistake. In 1960, he was elected to the first of four terms as Governor of North Dakota, the longest service of any governor in the history of our great state.

The 1960s were tumultuous years for this country but North Dakota prospered under Guy's level-headed leadership, a trait made obvious by his preferred hairstyle.

Here at the Capitol, he was instrumental in modernizing the operations of our state government, and the fingerprints of his work can be found in every corner of the state from projects such as Garrison Diversion to helping establish the first regional mental health centers. Additionally, by overseeing the building of our interstate highway system, Governor Guy helped lay the foundation for North Dakota's long-term economic prosperity.

But, more than all of that, Guy ushered in a new generation of leaders to North Dakota. He inspired one particular member of my own family to run for his first public office in 1962 as well as several others including Senators Byron Dorgan and Kent Conrad.

Guy was also responsible for the creation of our state's highest honor - the Theodore Roosevelt Rough Rider award - which was recently granted to its 39th recipient.

Mr. President, William Lewis Guy was a giant of public service in North Dakota. His vision, leadership and charisma will be missed, but his legacy will live on through the countless others he inspired into public service in our state, the true lasting impact of any public servant's work.

SEN. SCHNEIDER REQUESTED that the remarks of Sen. Sinner be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.

The Senate removed this requirement.
- Adds a section to provide for a $40 million loan from the Bank of North Dakota to the Western Area Water Supply Authority for construction of the project, which is declared an emergency measure, the same as the Senate.

- Allows the State Water Commission to use funding in the resources trust fund to pay off or defease outstanding bond issues when the balance in the resources trust fund exceeds $287 million rather than $515 million, as provided in the executive recommendation, the same as the Senate.
- Amends a section added by the House to require the State Water Commission to report to the Budget Section within 90 days of any changes made to the water project priority list presented to the Legislative Assembly in 2013 to provide the State Water Commission report every six months. The Senate removed this section.
- Replaces a section added by the House, but removed by the Senate, which increases the membership of the Water-Related Topics Overview Committee and
