14 amended and reenacted as follows:

15 23-02.1-13. Birth registration.

- 16 1. A birth record for each live birth that occurs in this state must be filed with the state 17 registrar.
- 18 2. When a birth occurs in an institution, the person in charge of the institution or a 19 designated representative must use the state department of health's electronic birth 20 registration system to report the birth, including all personal and medical facts, to the 21 state registrar within five days after the birth.
- 22 3. When a birth occurs outside an institution, the required forms prescribed by the state 23 department of health must be prepared and filed with the state registrar, within thirty 24 days of the birth by one of the following in the indicated order of priority:
- 25 a. The physician in attendance at or immediately after the birth, or in the absence of 26 such ~~a person~~an individual;
- 27 b. Any other ~~person~~individual in attendance at or immediately after the birth, or in 28 the absence of such ~~a person~~an individual; or
- 29 c. The father, the mother, or in the absence of the father and the inability of the 30 mother, the ~~person~~individual in charge of the premises where the birth occurred.

- 1 4. If a man and the mother are or have been married or have attempted to marry each 2 other in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be 3 declared invalid, and the child is born during the marriage or attempted marriage, or 4 within three hundred days after the termination of cohabitation or after the marriage or 5 attempted marriage is terminated by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, or 6 divorce, or after a decree of separation is entered by a court, the name of the man 7 must be entered on the record as the father of the child unless the presumption of 8 paternity has been rebutted by a court decree.
- 9 5. If the child is not born during the marriage of the mother, or within three hundred days 10 after a marriage is terminated by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, or divorce, 11 or after a decree of separation is entered by a court, the name of the father may not 12 be entered on the birth record unless:
- 13 a. After the child's birth, the father and the child's natural mother have married, or 14 attempted to marry, each other by a marriage solemnized in apparent compliance 15 with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared invalid, and:
16 (1) He has acknowledged his paternity of the child in writing filed with the state 17 registrar; or 18 (2) He is obligated to support the child under a written voluntary promise or by 19 court order;
- 20 b. After the child's birth, the child's natural mother and the father voluntarily 21 acknowledge the child's paternity ~~in a writing~~ on a form prescribed by the state 22 department of health, signed by both the child's natural mother and biological 23 father, and filed with the state registrar; or

- 25 6. If, in accordance with subsections 4 and 5, the name of the father of the child is not 26 entered on the birth record, the child's surname must be shown on the birth record as 27 the current legal surname of the mother at the time of birth unless an affidavit or an 28 acknowledgment of paternity signed by both parents is ~~received stating the surname~~ 29 ~~to be that of the father~~ filed with the state department of health.

30 SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is 31 amended and reenacted as follows:

1 23-02.1-15. Delayed registration of birth.

- 2 1. When the birth of a ~~person~~an individual born in this state has not been registered, a 3 record may be filed in accordance with the regulations of the state department of 4 health. Such record must be registered subject to such evidentiary requirements as 5 the state department of health shall prescribe to substantiate the alleged facts of birth.
- 6 2. Records of birth registered one year or more after the date of occurrence must be 7 marked "delayed" and show on ~~their~~the face of the record the date of delayed 8 registration.
- 9 3. A summary statement of the evidence submitted in support of the delayed registration 10 must be endorsed on the record.
- 11 4. a. When an applicant does not submit the minimum documentation required in the 12 regulations for delayed registration or when the state registrar finds reason to 13 question the validity or adequacy of the record or documentary evidence, the 14 state registrar may not register the delayed record and shall advise the applicant 15 of the reasons for this action. In the event that the deficiencies are not corrected, 16 the state registrar shall advise the applicant of the right of appeal to a court of 17 competent jurisdiction for a judicial determination of the birth facts.
- 18 b. The state department of health may by regulation provide for the dismissal of an 19 application ~~which~~that is more than ~~two years~~one year old and is not being 20 actively pursued.
- 21 5. A report of live birth may not be registered for a deceased individual one year or more 22 after that individual's date of birth.

23 SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-19 of the North Dakota Century Code is 24 amended and reenacted as follows:

25 23-02.1-19. Death registration.

- 26 1. A death record for each death that occurs in this state must be filed with the state 27 registrar in accordance with the rules and regulations set forth by the state department 28 of health using the electronic death registration system. All registration and issuing of 29 copies of death records will be completed by the state department of health.
- 30 2. The funeral director shall obtain the facts of death from the next of kin or the best 31 qualified ~~person~~individual or source available and must file the facts of death

1 information using the electronic death registration system within three days after 2 assuming custody of the dead body. The funeral director shall obtain the medical 3 certification of death from the ~~person~~individual responsible for the medical certification.

4 3. The medical certification must be completed and filed using the electronic death 5 registration system within ~~fifteen~~ten days after death by the physician, physician 6 assistant, or nurse practitioner in charge of the patient's care for the illness or 7 condition which resulted in death except when inquiry is required by the local health 8 officer or coroner.

9 4. When death occurred without medical attendance or when inquiry is required by the 10 local health officer or coroner, the county coroner shall investigate the cause of death, 11 and shall obtain medical information about the individual from the individual's medical 12 records or last-known physician or physician assistant, and shall complete and file the 13 medical certification within ~~fifteen~~ten days after taking charge of the case using the 14 electronic death registration system.

15 5. If the cause of death cannot be determined within ~~fifteen~~ten days after death, the 16 medical certification may be filed after the prescribed period, in accordance with rules 17 adopted by the state department of health. The attending physician, physician 18 assistant, nurse practitioner, or coroner shall give the funeral director in custody of the 19 body notice of the reason for the delay and final disposition may not be made until 20 authorized by the attending physician, physician assistant, nurse practitioner, or 21 coroner.

22 6. When a death is presumed to have occurred within this state but the body cannot be 23 located, a death record may be prepared by the state registrar upon receipt of findings 24 of a court of competent jurisdiction, including the facts of death and medical 25 certification required to complete the death record. The death record must be marked 26 "presumptive" and must show on ~~its~~the face of the death record the date of registration 27 and must identify the court and the date of the decree.

28 7. Each death ~~record~~registration must include the social security number of the 29 decedent, if the information is available. A social security number included on a death 30 record is confidential and may be disclosed only to a relative or authorized 31 representative of the individual named on the record, to a person with personal or real

1 property interests that depend upon information contained in the death record, or by 2 an order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

3 SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-20 of the North Dakota Century Code is 4 amended and reenacted as follows:

5 23-02.1-20. Fetal death registration.

- 6 1. A fetal death record for each fetal death ~~which~~that occurs in this state after a gestation 7 period of twenty completed weeks or more ~~or of less than twenty completed weeks of~~ 8 gestation when provided by rules of the state department of health must be filed with 9 the state registrar.
- 10 2. ~~The funeral director who first assumes custody of a fetus shall file the fetal death~~ 11 ~~record. In the absence of such a person, the physician or other person in attendance~~ 12 ~~at or after delivery shall file the fetal death record. The person filing the fetal death~~ 13 ~~record shall obtain the facts of death from the next of kin or the best qualified person~~ 14 ~~or source available and must file the facts of death information within fifteen days of~~ 15 ~~the occurrence using the electronic death registration system. The person filing the~~ 16 ~~fetal death record shall obtain the medical certification of death from the person~~ 17 ~~responsible for the medical certification~~When a fetal death occurs in an institution, the 18 person in charge of the institution or a designated representative shall use the state 19 department of health's electronic fetal death registration system to report the fetal 20 death, including all personal and medical facts, to the state registrar within ten days 21 after the delivery. If a fetal death occurs outside of an institution, a funeral director or 22 other individual in attendance at or after delivery shall file the fetal death record.
- 23 3. ~~The medical certification must be completed and filed using the electronic death~~ 24 ~~registration system by the physician, physician assistant, or a nurse practitioner in~~ 25 ~~attendance at the delivery within fifteen days after the delivery except when inquiry is~~ 26 ~~required by the local health officer or coroner.~~
- 27 4. When inquiry is required by the local health officer or coroner or in the absence of 28 medical attendance, the county coroner shall investigate the cause of fetal death, and 29 shall obtain medical information about the individual from that individual's medical 30 records or last-known physician or physician assistant and file the medical certification

1 within ~~fifteen~~ten days after taking charge of the case using the electronic death 2 registration system.

3 ~~5.4.~~ If the cause of fetal death cannot be determined within ~~fifteen~~ten days after death, the 4 medical certification may be filed after the prescribed period of time in accordance with 5 rules adopted by the state department of health. The attending physician, physician 6 assistant, nurse practitioner, or coroner shall give the funeral director in custody of the 7 fetus the notice of the reason for the delay and final disposition may not be made until 8 authorized by the attending physician, physician assistant, nurse practitioner, or 9 coroner.

10 ~~6.5.~~ The provision for entering the name of the father of the fetus on the fetal death record 11 and the reporting of out-of-wedlock fetal deaths concur exactly with those set forth in 12 section 23-02.1-13.

13 SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-25 of the North Dakota Century Code is 14 amended and reenacted as follows:

15 23-02.1-25. Correction and amendment of vital records.

- 16 1. A record registered under this chapter may be amended only in accordance with this 17 chapter and regulations ~~thereunder~~under this chapter adopted by the state department 18 of health to protect the integrity and accuracy of vital records.
- 19 2. A record that is amended under this section must be marked "amended" except as 20 provided in subsection 4. The date of amendment and a summary description of the 21 evidence submitted in support of the amendment must be endorsed on or made a part 22 of the record. The state department of health shall prescribe by regulation the 23 conditions under which additions or minor corrections may be made to birth records 24 within one year after the date of birth without the record being considered as 25 amended.
- 26 3. Upon receipt of a certified copy of a court order ~~changing the name of a person born in~~ 27 ~~this state~~that is amending a birth, death, or fetal death record and upon request of 28 such ~~person~~individual or the ~~person's~~individual's parent, guardian, or legal 29 representative, the state registrar shall amend the record ~~to reflect the new name as~~ 30 directed in the court order; however, if the state registrar has information to believe the 1 facts of the court order are false or inaccurate, the state registrar shall provide the 2 court and any known parties with the correct information.

3 4. Upon receipt of a sworn acknowledgment of paternity of a child born out of wedlock 4 signed by both parents and upon request, the state registrar shall amend a record of 5 birth to show such paternity if paternity is not shown on the record. Upon request of 6 the parents, the surname of the child must be changed on the appropriate record to 7 ~~that of the father~~the surname designated by the parents on the acknowledgment of 8 paternity. Such record may not be marked as "amended". The provisions of this 9 subsection apply also in their entirety to records of fetal death.

10 SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 23-02.1-27 of the North Dakota Century Code is 11 amended and reenacted as follows:

12 23-02.1-27. Disclosure of records.

13 Birth, death, and fetal death records, filings, data, or other information related to birth, 14 death, and fetal death records are confidential and may not be disclosed except as authorized 15 under this chapter. The state registrar shall restrict access to all vital records to protect vital 16 records from loss, mutilation, or destruction and to prevent disclosure of the information 17 contained in these records except as authorized under this chapter.

18 1. A certified copy of a birth record may be issued to the individual named on the record if 19 that individual is at least sixteen years old, to a parent named on the record, to an 20 authorized representative, or by the order of a court of competent jurisdiction. If the 21 individual named on a birth record is deceased, a certified copy of that record may 22 also be issued to a relative. If the date of birth on any birth record is more than one 23 hundred and twenty-five years old, that record is an open record and a certified copy 24 may be issued to anyone, except that adoption records remain confidential.

25 2. A certified copy of a complete death record may be issued to a relative, an authorized 26 representative, the child fatality review board, a licensed physician for the purposes of 27 researching family medical history, a funeral director reporting the facts of death, or a 28 person with personal or real property interests that depend upon information contained 29 in the complete death record or by the order of a court of competent jurisdiction and 30 may include the cause of death and the social security number. A certified copy of the 31 facts of death record that includes the facts of death and the social security number

1 may be issued to any person that may obtain a certified copy of a complete death 2 record or to any licensed attorney who requires the copy for a bona fide legal 3 determination. A certified copy of an informational death record may be issued to the 4 general public, but the copy may not contain the cause of death or the social security 5 number.

6 3. A certified copy of a fetal death record may be issued to a parent named on the 7 record, an authorized representative, or by the order of a court of competent 8 jurisdiction. A person authorized to receive a certified copy of a fetal death record may 9 request the certified copy be issued in the form of a certification of birth resulting in 10 stillbirth.

11 4. A noncertified informational copy of a marriage record may be issued to the general 12 public.

13 5. ~~Any individual~~A person authorized to receive a certified copy of any specific record 14 may grant another ~~individual~~person the same authority by completing a written 15 authorization on a form prescribed by the state department of health.

16 6. The state department of health may grant limited access to birth and death information 17 to divisions and programs of the state department of health, the department of 18 transportation, the protection and advocacy project, and the department of information 19 technology, and to the department of human services necessary for the purpose of 20 completing their respective official duties.

21 7. The state department of health may issue, through electronic means determined by 22 the state department of health, verifications of information contained on birth or death 23 records filed with the state registrar when such information is provided and a 24 verification is requested by a governmental agency, whether foreign or domestic, in 25 the conduct of the agency's official duties. The state department of health may also 26 issue these electronic verifications for a negotiated and agreed-upon fee to: 27 a. Benefit-paying parties, such as annuity companies, pension plans, and life 28 insurance companies, that demonstrate a need for such information to determine 29 whether the benefits the benefit-paying party are paying should be terminated or 30 distributed to a beneficiary;

- 1 b. Physicians licensed to practice in the United States who demonstrate such 2 information is needed to determine whether a patient the physician is treating has 3 been lost to care;
- 4 c. Attorneys licensed to practice in the United States who demonstrate that the 5 information is necessary to administer the attorneys' client's estate; or
- 6 d. Other entities for fraud prevention as determined by the state registrar.

7 SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 23-02.1-30 of the North Dakota 8 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 9 5. On or before the fifth day of each month, each hospital, institution, funeral director, 10 embalmer, or person acting as such in this state shall report to the state registrar, on 11 forms provided for this purpose, information required by the state registrar regarding 12 each ~~dead body or fetus~~birth, death, or fetal death handled by such person during the 13 preceding calendar month.

14 SECTION 9. APPLICATION. Under subsection 3 of section 23-02.1-13, the state 15 department of health shall use forms that are substantially similar to the department's North 16 Dakota parent's worksheet and certifier's worksheet for completing the North Dakota birth 17 certificate.
