PROCLAMATION
VIETNAM VETERANS' DAY
MARCH 29, 2017

WHEREAS, this year marks the 42nd anniversary of the end of American involvement in the Vietnam conflict; and

WHEREAS, thousands of brave Americans served our country in the conflict with courage, honor, and valor; and

WHEREAS, more than 58,000 individuals made the ultimate sacrifice in Vietnam and thousands more were wounded in combat; and

WHEREAS, many Americans are still missing and unaccounted for from the Vietnam conflict, and their families, friends, and fellow veterans still endure uncertainty concerning their fate; and

WHEREAS, North Dakota residents are encouraged to honor and thank our Vietnam Veterans for all they have given in service to this country, and to remember the heroes from this great state whose names are listed on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall in Washington, D.C., and those who are or were missing in action or prisoners of war.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim March 29, 2017, VIETNAM VETERANS' DAY in the State of North Dakota.

Doug Burgum
Governor

ATTEST:
Alvin A. Jaeger
Secretary of State

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. HECKAMAN rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR HECKAMAN

MR. PRESIDENT: We just heard the proclamation honoring our Vietnam Veterans.

This point of personal privilege is not meant to slight any of our veterans in this chamber.

I would like to lift one of those veterans for the work he has been honored for at the Heritage Center. Senator Richard Marcellais was selected as the first member in the first class of ND Native Americans to be recognized in the Native American Hall of Honor for his work in the category of Veterans.

This Native American Hall of Honor was a partnership that began in 2016 between the State Historical Society, the State Historical Society Foundation and the ND Indian Affairs Commission. The Hall recognizes Outstanding Native Americans in four categories, Veterans, Arts and Culture, Athletics, and Leadership.

Senator Marcellais' recognition points to his work with Veterans not only for his Tribe, the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa, but across the state. If you hear the word Veteran, you will find Senator Marcellais nearby.

Senator Marcellais joined the Army in 1968 and served until 1971 and was a Communication Specialist in Vietnam. He has received several medals of distinction and has dedicated his life to serving not only his Turtle Mountain Veterans, friends and families, but also has provided leadership through his work with various legion and veterans' organizations across the state.

I would invite you all to visit the Native American Hall of Honor at the Heritage Center. This fall, another Native American Veteran will be recognized and Sen. Marcellais' display will be retired. It is truly a special moment when you see and hear of his accomplishments. There is even miniature display of his colorful suit coats that his wife, Betty, had made for that display. But, the most special part of the entire display is when his granddaughter tells why her Grandpa is special. Senator Marcellais, we all think you are pretty special and we thank you for being our colleague and friend. We thank you for serving your country, Senator, along with the other veterans you honored today.

What else can we say about Senator Marcellais, other than we honor you today and join the ND Heritage Center and ND Indian Affairs Commission in recognizing you for all the work you have done and continue to do for veterans and the sacrifice you made during your tour of duty in Vietnam.

Thank you, Mr. President.
