4 examiners and the practice of chiropractic; and to repeal sections 43-06-10 and 43-06-12 of the 5 North Dakota Century Code, relating to the state board of chiropractic examiners and the 6 practice of chiropractic.

7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

8 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 43-06-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is 9 amended and reenacted as follows:

10 43-06-01. Definitions.

11 In this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

12 1. "Approved and accredited doctor of chiropractic program" means a doctor of 13 chiropractic program approved by the board and accredited by a board-approved 14 entity, such as the council on chiropractic education or its successor or equivalent.

15 2. "Board" means the state board of chiropractic examiners.

16 ~~2-3.~~ "Certified chiropractic clinical assistant" means an individual certified by the board who 17 in accordance with section 43-06-16.1 assists with basic health care duties in the 18 practice of chiropractic under the supervision of a licensed doctor of chiropractic in 19 good standing with the board.

20 ~~3-4.~~ a. "The practice of chiropractic" includes:

21 (1) The examination, evaluation, and diagnosis by means including x-ray, other 22 appropriate diagnostic imaging, clinical laboratory procedures, or pertinent 23 examinations taught by chiropractic colleges accredited by the council on 24 chiropractic education or its successor or equivalent;

- 1 (2) The treatment of patients by means of the adjustment or manipulation of the
- 2 spinal column, the vertebral articulations, the appendicular skeleton not
- 3 excluding the skull, and of any displaced tissue of any kind or nature;
- 4 (3) The practice of physiotherapy, electrotherapy, or hydrotherapy;
- 5 (4) All other procedures, treatments, and interventions taught by chiropractic
- 6 colleges accredited by the council on chiropractic education or its
- 7 successor;
- 8 (5) The rating and reporting of any permanent impairment of function and the
- 9 providing of professional opinions regarding any matter included in this
- 10 definition of practice of chiropractic as set out herein; ~~and~~
- 11 (6) Delegation of basic health care duties in the practice of chiropractic to a
- 12 certified chiropractic clinical assistant; and
- 13 (7) Telehealth.

14 b. The practice of chiropractic does not include prescribing for, removal of, or 15 administering to any person any medicine or drug to be taken internally which is

16 now or hereafter included in materia medica, nor performing any surgery, except 17 as is provided in this section, nor practicing obstetrics.

18 5. "Telehealth" means the use of electronic communications to provide and deliver

19 chiropractic related information and chiropractic services, including chiropractic related

20 information and services, over any distance. Telehealth encompasses chiropractic

21 care and chiropractic promotion activities, including education, advice, reminders,

22 interventions, and the monitoring of interventions.

12 amended and reenacted as follows:

13 43-06-04. Board of chiropractic examiners - Members - Term of office.

- 14 1. Each member of the board shall qualify by taking the oath of office required of civil 15 officers and shall hold office for a term of five years and until the member's successor
16 is appointed and qualified. The terms of office of the members of the board must be so 17 arranged that only one term expires on the thirty-first day of August of any year except:
18 a. Every fifth year, the governor shall appoint a doctor of chiropractic and a certified 19 chiropractic clinical assistant to the board.
20 b. ~~Two years~~One year after the appointments in subdivision a, the governor shall 21 appoint a doctor of chiropractic and a consumer member to the board.
22 2. A member may not serve for more than two consecutive five-year terms.
23 3. If a member of the board is absent from two consecutive regular meetings, the board 24 may declare a vacancy. Vacancies on the board must be filled by appointment by the 25 governor.

26 SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 43-06-04.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
27 amended and reenacted as follows:

28 43-06-04.1. Powers and duties of board.

- 29 1. The board shall administer the provisions of this chapter and the administrative rules
30 of the board relating to the practice of chiropractic. ~~‡~~The board has all powers, rights, 31 and duties as provided in chapter 28-32.

- 1 2. The board shall verify the qualifications of applicants for licenses to practice
2 chiropractic and of applicants for certification to practice as a certified chiropractic
3 clinical assistant. ~~‡The board~~ shall examine and renew the licenses or certification of 4 duly qualified applicants.
- 5 3. The board shall regulate the practice of chiropractic and shall enforce the provisions of 6 this chapter and the rules of the board. The board shall investigate complaints of 7 violations and cause the prosecution of persons violating the provisions of this chapter 8 or the administrative rules of the board.
- 9 4. The board may appoint a peer review committee and employ ~~such~~ personnel and

- 7 1. A license to practice chiropractic in this state is valid for one year ~~only~~ and must be 8 renewed on or before the first day of September of each year.
- 9 2. A renewal applicant shall pay a fee for renewal of a license. The fee for renewal of a 10 license must be determined by the board from time to time, but may not exceed five 11 hundred dollars.
- 12 3. The board shall establish by rule the number of hours necessary for annual continuing
13 education. ~~Before it issues a renewal license, the board shall require each applicant~~
14 ~~who has a license to practice in this state to attend a postgraduate course sponsored~~ 15 ~~by a college of chiropractic, accredited by the council on chiropractic education, or its~~ 16 ~~successor or equivalent, a health-related seminar sponsored by an equally accredited~~ 17 ~~college or university, a medical seminar qualifying for continuing education credits, or~~ 18 ~~an educational program arranged by the North Dakota chiropractic association and~~ 19 ~~approved by the board.~~
- 20 4. The board shall establish by rule the accepted programs for the annual continuing 21 education requirement.
- 22 5. A license ~~which~~that has not been renewed, as a result of nonpayment of annual 23 registration fees required by this chapter or as a result of the failure by the licensee to 24 attend the required annual continuing education, may be reinstated ~~upon payment to~~ 25 ~~the board of the amount of renewal fees then in default or by certification that the~~ 26 ~~required continuing education has been completed after the expiration of the previous~~ 27 ~~license by procedure adopted by the board in administrative rules.~~ In either case, the 28 board may charge an additional administrative fee to be fixed by the board at the time 29 of consideration of the reinstatement, not to exceed four hundred dollars.
- 30 6. In addition to the payment of fees, the board, after an investigation, may require a 31 chiropractor whose license has not been renewed to submit to a re-examination as to

1 the applicant's qualifications to practice chiropractic before the applicant is reinstated,
2 if the board in the exercise of ~~its~~the board's discretion finds and determines that the 3 best interests of the public and the applicant will be served thereby.

4 SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 43-06-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is
5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6 43-06-15. Grounds for denial of licensure, revocation, or suspension of license or 7 other action of the board - Sworn~~Sworn~~Signed written statement - Investigation - Hearing.

8 1. The board may deny an application for licensure and may revoke, suspend, or take 9 such other action as provided in this section regarding the license of any chiropractor 10 in this state who:

11 a. Has a mental or physical condition such that the person is unable to safely 12 engage in the practice of chiropractic.

13 b. Has been declared incompetent or seriously mentally ill by a court of competent 14 jurisdiction and thereafter has not been declared competent or released from 15 supervision.

16 c. Is suffering from alcoholism or drug addiction which endangers the public by

- 4 in another jurisdiction; or has entered a settlement agreement to avoid or resolve
- 5 a disciplinary complaint in another jurisdiction as a result of acts similar to acts
- 6 described in this section or rule of the board. A certified copy of the ~~suspension or~~
- 7 ~~revocation~~board order in the other jurisdiction is conclusive evidence.
- 8 l. Has committed any violation of the provisions of this chapter ~~and~~, the code of
- 9 ethics, or rules as adopted by the board, including the failure to submit for
- 10 physical or mental examination or to provide information as required by the
- 11 board.
- 12 m. Has practiced chiropractic while the license to practice was suspended or
- 13 revoked.
- 14 n. Has, while under probation, violated ~~its~~the terms of probation.
- 15 o. Has failed to properly supervise a certified chiropractic clinical assistant or who
- 16 has delegated duties to a certified chiropractic clinical assistant which are beyond
- 17 the assistant's education or training or which are beyond the scope of practice of
- 18 a certified chiropractic clinical assistant.
- 19 2. Any person, health care facility, business, or organization is immune from civil liability
- 20 or criminal prosecution for submitting a ~~sworn~~signed written statement and other
- 21 reports and information to the board under subsection 5 or for otherwise reporting to
- 22 the board violations or alleged violations under this chapter. The reports are not public
- 23 records.
- 24 3. Members of the board and persons employed by the board or engaged in the
- 25 investigation or prosecution of violations and in the preparation and management of
- 26 charges of violations of this chapter on behalf of the board, including members of any
- 27 peer review committee, are immune from civil liability and criminal prosecution for any
- 28 actions, transactions, or publications in the execution of, or relating to, their duties
- 29 under this chapter.
- 30 4. A doctor of chiropractic who is the subject of an investigation by, or on behalf of, the
- 31 board shall cooperate fully with the investigation. Cooperation includes responding

1 fully and promptly to any question raised by, or on behalf of, the board relating to the 2 subject of the investigation and providing copies of patient records or any pertinent 3 information requested by the board, to assist the board in ~~its~~the board's investigation.

- 4 5. Any person, including a member of the board, may file a signed written statement and 5 other reports and information with any member of the board against a licensed 6 chiropractor charging the chiropractor with any of the offenses or conditions set forth in 7 subsection 1, ~~which.~~ The statement must set forth a specification of the charges.

8 When the statement has been filed, the board shall make an investigation as provided 9 by subsection 6.

- 10 6. When the statement and other reports and information have been filed, the board shall 11 notify the licensed chiropractor of the allegations and ~~shall thereafter make an~~ 12 ~~investigation for the purpose of determining~~shall investigate to determine whether the 13 allegations in the statement constitute a basis for further proceedings. The 14 investigation must be conducted in such manner and at such time and place as in the 15 judgment of the board will best ascertain the facts. The board may appoint a peer 16 review committee. The board, in order to pursue the investigation, ~~has the power~~ 17 ~~to~~may subpoena and examine witnesses and records, including patient records, and 18 ~~to~~ copy, photograph, or take samples. ~~#~~The board may require the licensed 19 chiropractor to give statements under oath, to submit to a physical or mental 20 examination, or both, by a physician or physicians and other qualified evaluation
21 professionals selected by the board if it appears to be in the best interests of the public
22 that this evaluation be secured. The board may examine and review any relevant 23 medical or psychological records, including test results and x-rays relative to the 24 examination or treatment of the licensed chiropractor. A written request from the board
25 constitutes authorization to release information. The medical or psychological 26 information is not public record.

- 27 7. If, based on the investigation or report from a peer review committee, the board has 28 reasonable cause to believe ~~that~~ there is a basis for further proceedings, the board 29 shall prepare a complaint and serve ~~it~~the complaint, along with a notice of hearing, on 30 the licensed chiropractor and thereafter proceed with a hearing on the matter under

- 1 chapter 28-32. All hearings must be held in Bismarck ~~at the state capitol~~ unless the 2 board and the licensed chiropractor agree otherwise.
- 3 8. After the hearing, the board, under section 28-32-39, shall make and give notice of 4 ~~its~~the board's determination or decision as to whether the offenses charged have been 5 committed or the conditions charged do not exist. If the finding is in the negative, the 6 board shall dismiss the charges. If the finding is in the affirmative, the board ~~shall~~:
- 7 a. ~~Revoke~~Shall revoke the license;
- 8 b. ~~Suspend~~Shall suspend the licensee's right to practice for a period not to exceed 9 one year;
- 10 c. ~~Suspend its~~Shall suspend the board's judgment of revocation on terms and 11 conditions determined by the board;
- 12 d. ~~Place~~Shall place the licensee on probation; or
- 13 e. ~~Take~~Shall take any other disciplinary action which the board in ~~its~~the board's 14 discretion considers proper, including the ordering of an adjustment to a patient's 15 bill or refund of ~~such an~~ amount previously paid, including reasonable interest 16 from the date of the order, to a patient or payer of any unconscionable fees for 17 chiropractic services.
- 18 f. In addition to the actions imposed in subdivisions a through e, ~~the board~~ may:
- 19 (1) Require payment of all costs of proceedings resulting in a disciplinary 20 action, including administrative costs, investigation costs, attorney's fees, 21 peer review committee costs, witness costs and fees, the costs of the 22 offices of administrative hearings services, and court costs.
- 23 (2) Impose a civil penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars for each separate 24 violation, to deprive the chiropractor of any economic advantage gained by 25 reason of the violation found and to reimburse the board for the cost of the 26 investigation and proceedings.
- 27 9. In cases of revocation, suspension, or probation, the board shall record the facts of the 28 case and all actions of the board.
- 29 10. On the expiration of a term of suspension, the licensee must be reinstated by the 30 board if the chiropractor applies to the board and furnishes evidence, satisfactory to 31 the board, that the licensee is then of good character and conduct or restored to good

1 health and that the licensee has not practiced chiropractic during the term of 2 suspension and is competent to practice in this state. If the evidence fails to establish 3 those facts to the satisfaction of the board, the board may require the applicant to 4 submit to an examination in accordance with ~~sections 43-06-08 through 43-06-12~~this 5 chapter or shall proceed to hearing on revocation with notice as provided in 6 subsection 7.

7 11. Any licensed chiropractor may take corrective action or voluntarily relinquish the 8 chiropractor's license to the board before a formal order of the board on such terms 9 and conditions as may be agreed by the licensed chiropractor and the board.

10 SECTION 12. AMENDMENT. Section 43-06-16.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
