23 SECTION 2. Chapter 18-10.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as 24 follows:

1 18-10.1-01. Definitions.

2 For purposes of this chapter:

3 1. "Nonpaid or volunteer fire department" means a fire department that is a part of or is 4 administered by any political subdivision of this state or a rural fire protection district in
5 which less than fifty percent of the personnel of the department are full-time regularly
6 salaried firefighters.

7 2. "Private donations and contributions" include money provided to a nonpaid or 8 volunteer fire department from donations by private persons, private fundraising, and 9 private grants. The term does not include money collected through the levy of taxes,
10 borrowed by or on behalf of the nonpaid or volunteer fire department, or received from 11 any public entity or corporation.

12 18-10.1-02. Volunteer fire department private donation and contribution fund.

13 The governing body of a nonpaid or volunteer fire department may create a private donation
14 and contribution fund, consisting of private donations and contributions received by the nonpaid
15 or volunteer fire department. The private donation and contribution fund may not contain any 16 other funds received, collected, or borrowed by the nonpaid or volunteer fire department.
17 Expenditures from the fund must be authorized by the governing body of the nonpaid or 18 volunteer fire department.

19 18-10.1-03. Volunteer fire department private donation and contribution fund audits.

20 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a private donation and contribution fund created 21 under section 18-10.1-02 is exempt from the audit requirements of sections 54-10-14 and 22 54-10-15 and may be audited by the nonpaid or volunteer fire department or the political 23 subdivision to which the nonpaid or volunteer fire department is accountable in accordance with 24 generally accepted government auditing standards for audits of political subdivisions.
