6 The commission in all cases may conduct its proceedings, when not otherwise particularly 7 prescribed by law, in a manner most conducive to the proper dispatch of business and to the 8 ends of justice. A majority of the commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of 9 business, but a commissioner shall not participate in any hearing or proceeding in which that 10 commissioner has any direct personal pecuniary interest. The commission from time to time 11 may make or amend such general rules or orders as may be requisite for the orderly regulation 12 of proceedings before it, including forms of notice and the service thereof, which shall conform 13 as nearly as possible to those in use in the courts of this state. Any party may appear before the 14 commission and may be heard in person or by attorney. Every vote and official action of the 15 commission shall be entered of record and its proceedings shall be public upon the request of 16 any person interested. The commission shall have an official seal, which shall be judicially 17 noticed, and every commissioner shall have the right to administer oaths and affirmations in any 18 proceeding pending before the commission. At the beginning of each regularly scheduled 19 meeting of the commission, members must be given the opportunity to participate in a voluntary 20 recitation of the pledge of allegiance.

25 The emergency commission consists of the governor, the majority leaders of the senate and 26 house of representatives of the legislative assembly, the secretary of state, and the chairmen of 27 the senate and house of representatives appropriations committees. If the chairman of an 28 appropriations committee ceases to be a member of the legislative assembly, the vice chairman
29 of that committee succeeds to that position on the commission. An appropriations committee 30 vice chairman may serve in the place of the appropriations committee chairman as a member of 31 the commission at the request of the appropriate appropriations committee chairman, if the

1 appropriations committee chairman is unable to attend a commission meeting. If a majority 2 leader ceases to be a member of the legislative assembly, the respective house's assistant
3 majority leader succeeds to that position on the commission. A majority leader's assistant 4 majority leader may serve as a member of the commission in the place of the majority leader at 5 the request of the majority leader if that majority leader is serving on the commission in another
6 capacity or is unable to attend a commission meeting. Four members of the commission 7 constitute a quorum. The governor is the chairman and the secretary of state is the secretary of 8 the commission. The commission shall meet at the call of the chairman. At the beginning of 9 each regularly scheduled meeting of the emergency commission, members must be given the 10 opportunity to participate in a voluntary recitation of the pledge of allegiance.
