GRANTS TO TRIBALLY CONTROLLED COMMUNITY COLLEGES

Chapter 15-70 (Appendix C) creates an assistance program for tribally controlled community colleges located in the state. Funding is to be distributed to the tribally controlled community colleges to defray the costs of education associated with the enrollment of nonbeneficiary students.

In order to qualify for a grant, a qualified institution must submit an application to the State Board of Higher Education that documents the enrollment status of each student for whom financial assistance is sought. If an application is approved, the State Board of Higher Education is to distribute an annual payment to the institution for each nonbeneficiary student enrolled at the institution. The amount of payment is to be equal to the per-student payment provided to institutions under the federal Tribally Controlled Colleges and Universities Assistance Act of 1978 or a prorated amount if funding is limited.

Each tribal college receiving a grant under Chapter 15-70 is to submit a report to the Legislative Council detailing the expenditures of the grant funds received by the institution. Additionally, each college is to submit a copy of the institution's latest audit report and documentation of the enrollment status of each student for whom financial assistance is requested. Any institution that fails to meet the reporting requirements is ineligible to receive future grants until the required information is submitted.

RESEARCH NETWORK COLLABORATION WITH MINNESOTA ENTITIES

Section 33 of Senate Bill No. 2003 (Appendix D) requires the State Board of Higher Education to provide a report regarding the status of efforts to collaborate with Minnesota entities for research network purposes. Currently, the North Dakota University System utilizes the Northern Tier Network to collaborate with other states for research network purposes.

Northern Tier Network

The Northern Tier Network is an ultra high-speed regional network that supports research and education across Alaska, Idaho, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Washington, Wisconsin, and Wyoming. In North Dakota, this high-speed network depends upon the state's government and education network for institutional connectivity and is operated through contracts with private telecommunications companies such as AT&T and Midcontinent Communications and higher education service providers, such as Broadband Optical Research, Education and Sciences Network.

Planning for the Northern Tier Network began in 2003. One-time funding provided for the North Dakota portion of the network included $3.25 million in federal funds, $2.77 million in state funding, and $2.1 million from the National Science Foundation. In addition, the Northern Tier Network Consortium members of Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, and Washington were partners in a $62.5 million grant. Funding for North Dakota's continued participation in the Northern Tier Network has been included in the University System's budget. In the 2015-17 biennium, Northern Tier Network costs totaled $2.36 million.

DATA INCONSISTENCIES

Section 37 of 2017 Senate Bill No. 2003 (Appendix E) requires the State Board of Higher Education to provide a report regarding the status of inconsistencies in employee classifications and human resources reporting, employee leave policies, practices for awarding tuition waivers, and practices regarding the charging of student fees, including policies and procedures being developed to address the inconsistencies.

1. Lack of integration of personal and demographic information among computer systems;
2. Lack of use of standard chart of accounts for financial reporting and standard department budget table deduction and tax override flags;
3. Absence of standard business processes for recording mandatory fees and for changing payroll funding source information;
4. Inconsistent methods and procedures at institutions for recording high school completions, identifying student cohorts for reporting purposes, and classifying agency funds;
5. Inconsistent practices and policies at institutions for awarding tuition waivers, admitting students, using purchasing cards, charging tuition and fees, and accruing of faculty sick leave;
6. Inconsistent coding and naming for bad debt expense and journal entries;
7. Use of shadow accounting systems for reporting purposes; and

8. Inconsistent definitions for a distance education student, a resident student for tuition purposes, and a full-time student for federal tax purposes.

The State Board of Higher Education reported to the Appropriations Committees of the 65th Legislative Assembly regarding the status of the inconsistencies.
