The bill allows a county to elect to provide clerk of district court services at the county's own expense upon resolution of the Board of County Commissioners and provides that if a county is unable to provide adequate clerk of court services, the Supreme Court must provide those services in a manner it considers appropriate. The bill transfers various clerk of district court services to county registers of deeds or other officials designated by the Board of County Commissioners. The bill also provides that beginning January 1, 2003, the individual designated by the Board of County Commissioners to provide clerk of court services serves as ex officio clerk of district court and the salary and bond for the ex officio clerk of district court must be fixed by a resolution adopted by the Board of County Commissioners. The bill defines "farming or ranching" as cultivating land for production of agricultural crops or livestock, or raising, feeding, or producing livestock, poultry, milk, or fruit. The bill authorizes a Board of County Commissioners to regulate the nature and scope of concentrated feeding operations permissible in a county, but provides that if a regulation would impose a substantial economic burden on a concentrated feeding operation in existence before the effective date of the regulation, the Board of County Commissioners must declare that the regulation is ineffective with respect to any concentrated feeding operation in existence before the effective date of the regulation. The bill prohibits a Board of County Commissioners from enacting a regulation that would preclude the development of a concentrated feeding operation in the county. The bill provides that a regulation addressing the development of a concentrated feeding operation in the county may set reasonable standards, based on the size of the operation, to govern its location. The bill defines a "concentrated feeding operation" as any livestock feeding, handling, or holding operation, or feed yard, where animals are concentrated in an area that is not normally used for pasture or for growing crops and in which animal waste may accumulate, or in an area where the space per animal unit is less than six hundred square feet. The bill also requires that whenever land, subject to subdivision regulation, abuts any lake, river, or stream and is subdivided, the subdivider must show on the plat or other document containing the subdivision a contour line denoting the present shoreline, water elevation, and the date of the survey. The bill further provides that if any part of a plat or other document lies within the 100-year floodplain or a lake, river, or stream as designated by the state engineer or a federal agency, the mean sea level elevation of that 100-year flood must be denoted on the plat by numerals.

Summary of Bills Enacted by 1999 Legislative Assembly

This memorandum summarizes 1999 legislation primarily affecting North Dakota Century Code Title 40. Bills primarily affecting other titles may also affect this title, and relevant provisions of those bills are summarized in this memorandum.

The legislation relating to municipal government may be classified in these subject areas: home rule cities, city officers, special assessments, zoning, tax exemptions, and miscellaneous.

HOME RULE CITIES

House Bill No. 1318 prohibits a home rule city from imposing income taxes.

Senate Bill No. 2198 removes the requirement that a copy of a home rule charter be filed with the clerk of district court for the county in which the city is located. The bill also provides that a copy of a ratified amendment or a repeal of a home rule charter must be filed with the Secretary of State and with the city auditor.

CITY OFFICERS

House Bill No. 1025 provides that terms of council members must be arranged so that one-half of the council members in a city, as nearly as is practicable, are elected in any one election. Previous law provided that only one-half of the council members may be elected in any one election and did not take into consideration the possibility of a city council consisting of an odd number of members.

House Bill No. 1181 provides that if a vacancy exists on a city council which would require an unexpired term to be filled by election, the unexpired term must be designated on the ballot separate from any other regular term or terms that may also appear on the ballot. The bill requires a candidate seeking nomination to an unexpired term to indicate whether the candidate is seeking a regular term of office or an unexpired term of office on the candidate's nominating petition. The bill also provides that the refusal to take the oath of office qualifies as a refusal to serve and a failure to qualify for the office for a person elected or appointed to any municipal office. The bill also removes the requirement that two election clerks be appointed by the governing body of a city for a city election and provides that in voting precincts in which over 300 votes are cast in any previous election, two election clerks may be appointed by the governing body. The bill provides that a petition for nomination to an elective office in a city must meet the requirements of nominating petitions pursuant to general election law and that the nominating petitions may not be circulated or signed more than 90 days before the date when the petitions must be filed.

House Bill No. 1235 removes the requirement that a municipal judge or alternative judge attend, at least twice within one year after taking office and at least twice each calendar year thereafter, a continuing education session designated by the Supreme Court. The bill requires municipal judges and alternative judges to comply with continuing judicial education requirements established by the Supreme Court by rule.

The bill also changes references with respect to sale of real estate if a special assessment is delinquent to foreclosure of the property. The bill is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1998; however, the bill provides that property tax proceedings relating to property taxes due or delinquent for any taxable year before 1999 are subject to provisions of law that were in effect December 31, 1998.

ZONING

House Bill No. 1167 provides that city zoning regulations must provide for emergency management. The bill defines "emergency management" as a comprehensive integrated system at all levels of government and in the private sector which provides for the development and maintenance of an effective capability to mitigate, prepare for, respond to, and recover from known and unforeseen hazards or situations, caused by an act of nature or man, which may threaten, injure, damage, or destroy lives, property, or our environment. The bill also requires that a written plat for a townsite or subdivision which includes lands abutting a river must show a contour line denoting the present shoreline, water elevation, and the date of the survey.

Senate Bill No. 2290 requires a city exercising its extraterritorial zoning authority to hold a zoning transition meeting if the territory to be extraterritorially zoned is currently zoned. The bill requires the city zoning or planning commission to provide at least 14 days' notice of the meeting to the zoning board or boards of all political subdivisions losing their partial zoning authority. The bill also provides that the purpose of the zoning transition meeting is to review existing zoning rules, regulations, and restrictions currently in place in the territory to be extraterritorially zoned and to plan for an orderly transition.

TAX EXEMPTIONS

Senate Bill No. 2051 gives an affected school district or township the right to have a member participate as a nonvoting, ex officio member of the governing body of the city or county when that governing body is considering granting an exemption or the right to make payments in lieu of taxes for a new or expanding business.

The legislation relating to taxation may be classified in these subject areas: property taxes, sales taxes, income taxes, fuels taxes, telecommunications taxes, energy taxes, financial institutions taxes, tobacco taxes, and miscellaneous.

PROPERTY TAXES

✓ House Bill No. 1053 allows beginning farmers to qualify for the farm residence property tax exemption. Previous law required a history of farm income to qualify for the exemption, which would exclude new farmers. The bill defines a beginning farmer as one who has begun occupancy of a farm within the three preceding calendar years, who normally devotes the majority of time to farming activities, and who does not have a history of farm income for each of the three preceding calendar years.

✓ House Bill No. 1054 eliminates in farm buildings property tax exemption decisions consideration of the criteria established in 1977 by the North Dakota Supreme Court--whether the farmer grows or purchases feed for animals, whether the farmer owns the animals, whether replacement animals are produced on the farm, and whether the farmer is engaged in contract feeding of animals. The bill provides that buildings are not eligible for the exemption if they are primarily used for processing to produce a value-added physical or chemical change in an agricultural commodity beyond the ordinary handling of that commodity by a farmer prior to sale.

✓ House Bill No. 1363 makes an adjustment in net income from farming activities as used as a measure to qualify for the farm buildings property tax exemption by allowing the farmer to add back depreciation expenses from farming activities which are deducted in computing federal taxable income.

✓ House Bill No. 1351 allows an adult day care center to qualify for the property tax exemption that may be granted by the governing body of the city or county, in the same manner child day care facilities may be exempted.

House Bill No. 1052 increases by $500 each of the annual income limitations to qualify for the homestead property tax credit for persons 65 years of age or older or who are permanently and totally disabled. This change increases the maximum income to qualify for the credit to $14,000.

Senate Bill No. 2052 creates a new category of agricultural property for inundated agricultural land. "Inundated agricultural land" is defined as property classified as agricultural property which is inundated to an extent making it unsuitable for growing crops or grazing farm animals for a full growing season or more. Before all or part of a parcel of property may be classified as inundated agricultural, the Board of County Commissioners must approve that classification for that property for the taxable year. The agricultural value of inundated agricultural lands for assessment purposes must be established at 10 percent of the average agricultural value of noncropland for the county as determined under the agricultural property valuation formula. Valuation of individual parcels of inundated agricultural land may recognize the probability that the property will be suitable for agricultural production as cropland or for grazing farm animals in the future.

Senate Bill No. 2054 adjusts the agricultural property valuation formula for property tax purposes by requiring inclusion of computations based on changes in the index of prices paid by farmers as compiled by the national agricultural statistics service. The bill requires statistics on prices paid by farmers to be gathered for the same years for which annual gross returns for farm land statistics are used in the formula.

Senate Bill No. 2382 increases from one mill to two mills the maximum amount that may be levied by a city or county for senior citizen programs. The bill provides that the levy for senior citizen programs may not be increased to more than one mill unless approved by a majority of the electors of the county or city voting on the question.

Senate Bill No. 2358 allows counties to levy a property tax of up to five mills, which must be within the 30-mill levy limit for OASIS, Social Security, or retirement, and the five-mill levy may be used for county automation and telecommunications resources.

House Bill No. 1196 allows school districts to levy up to 10 mills in property taxes for support of alternative education programs. The 10 mill maximum must fit within the 15-mill levy limitation allowed for asbestos abatement.

Senate Bill No. 2162 allows school districts to levy up to five mills, within the 15-mill limit for asbestos abatement, and to use the five-mill levy for remodeling required to meet specifications set under the Americans with Disabilities Act or remodeling to meet requirements set by the State Fire Marshal.

House Bill No. 1275 replaces the clerk of district court with the register of deeds, or a different official designated by the Board of County Commissioners, for receipt of an undertaking for payment of personal property taxes or receipt of a notice of delinquent taxes with regard to a tax debtor who has moved to the county.

Senate Bill No. 2246 removes the requirement of providing a property tax payment receipt to the taxpayer and allows the Board of County Commissioners an option of whether the county treasurer shall provide a duplicate receipt to the county auditor for property tax payments. The bill requires the real estate tax statement to be provided in a manner that allows the taxpayer to retain a printed record of the obligation for payment of taxes and special assessments.

Senate Bill No. 2334 makes extensive revision of laws relating to delinquent property taxes. The bill eliminates the annual tax sale, tax sale certificates, and subsequent tax sale certificates. The bill changes the notice of the expiration of the period of redemption for property sold at the tax sale to a notice of foreclosure of tax lien. The bill makes county title to property marketable if acquired through foreclosure of tax lien and the same requirements that must be met by cities apply to the acquisition of title by the county. The bill does not reduce the time property tax may be delinquent before the property is lost by the taxpayer.

House Bill No. 1044 makes corrections of twentieth century statutory references contained in several statutory forms relating to property tax collection and administration.

House Bill No. 1117 eliminates the requirement of providing a copy to the Office of Management and Budget of county cancellation of property taxes and special assessments.

House Bill No. 1487 and Senate Bill No. 2217 provide identical reductions from three percent to 1.5 percent in the sales and use tax rate for sales of used farm machinery, farm machinery repair parts, and used irrigation equipment used exclusively for agricultural purposes. For purposes of machinery and equipment, "used" is defined as having been subject to sales or use tax on a previous sale, having originally been purchased outside the state and previously owned by a farmer, or having been under lease or rental for three years or more. The reduced tax rate is effective for taxable sales occurring from May 1, 1999, through June 30, 2001.

Senate Bill No. 2421 extends the sales tax exemption for manufacturing or recycling machinery and equipment to extend to machinery and equipment used in the refining of crude oil. The exemption will apply for taxable events occurring from February 1, 1999, through July 31, 2002.

Senate Bill No. 2105 provides that allocations from the state aid distribution fund after December 31, 1998, must be made according to the revised state aid distribution fund formula enacted in 1997.

House Bill No. 1110 allows the motor vehicle excise tax exemption to apply to leased motor vehicles of a disabled veteran, permanently physically disabled individual, or parochial private nonprofit school.

The bill expands the limit on the income of the taxpayer claiming the credit and providing the care. The law previously began reducing the credit for care providers having taxable income of $25,000 but the bill increases this amount to $35,000 for a joint return. The 30 percent of qualified expenses credit is reduced by one percentage point for each $2,000 of income exceeding $25,000, or $35,000 for a joint return. In addition, the dollar-for-dollar reduction for taxable income exceeding $50,000 is increased to apply beginning at $70,000 for a joint return. The bill also allows the Tax Commissioner to waive secrecy provisions regarding income tax returns to the extent necessary to advise taxpayers of how prorating of the family care credit should have been computed by family members providing shares of care expenses.

House Bill No. 1307 adds to the eligible claimant agencies for setoff of income tax refunds the state housing finance agency or a local housing authority. The bill requires local housing authorities to elect one of their number to act as the claimant agency on behalf of all housing authorities for purposes of submitting claims to the Tax Commissioner.

House Bill No. 1113 rewrites the definition of "federal income tax liability" for the starting point on the state optional short-form income tax return. The revisions address changes to federal law and federal tax forms including special capital gain tax rates, new income averaging rules for farmers, and new income tax credits. The revisions eliminate an obsolete adjustment for investment tax credit against federal alternative minimum tax and make adjustments for lump sum distributions, tax on excess contributions to an individual retirement account, and tax on excess accumulations in certain retirement accounts for nonresident filers.

House Bill No. 1492 allows establishment of "renaissance zones" in cities. A business that purchases or leases property for a business purpose as part of a zone project is exempt from income tax for five taxable years for income derived from the business locations within the renaissance zone. An individual, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, trust, or corporation that purchases residential or commercial property as an investment as part of a zone project is exempt from income tax for five taxable years for income earned from the investment. A historic preservation and renovation tax credit is provided against financial institutions taxes, corporate income taxes, and individual income taxes on the long-form or short-form return for investments in historic preservation and renovation of property in the renaissance zone during the years 2000 through 2004. The credit for historic preservation and renovation is 50 percent of the amount invested and any excess credit may be carried forward for up to five taxable years. The total amount of credits for investments in renaissance fund corporations in the state may not exceed an aggregate of $2.5 million for all taxpayers for all taxable years. ## FUELS TAXES

Senate Bill No. 2177 is a substantial revision of the fuels tax laws. The majority of the bill consists of technical changes relating to tax administration (and is intended to remove obsolete language, harmonize and clarify provisions, and add provisions lacking in previous law). The bill creates a tax credit or refund for a reseller of fuel when the fuel is resold to a federal agency, which was previously primarily handled by credit cards issued by major oil companies who made adjustments to cover these transactions. Changes were necessary to address independent credit card companies, who are unable to shift adjustments to local fuel sellers. The bill creates a requirement of licensing for fuel terminal operators and establishes a filing requirement for reports to allow the Tax Commissioner to track fuel disbursements. The bill changes deposit of motor vehicle fuel license fees from the state general fund to the highway tax distribution fund (to be consistent with the constitutional provision requiring motor fuel license fees to be used only for highway purposes). The bill establishes requirements that importers and exporters of fuel for resale must supply proof that they are licensed in the jurisdiction that is the source of imports or the destination of exports. The bill creates a requirement that carriers hauling fuel must be licensed, retain records, be subject to audit, and report diverted loads. The provisions do not apply to fuel businesses hauling their own fuel with their own vehicles. The bill creates a penalty and interest requirement for delinquent aviation fuel taxes, which was not in previous law. The bill makes changes in licensing and reporting requirements for interstate motor carriers to be compatible with the international fuel tax agreement.

House Bill No. 1130 eliminates the expiration date on the 20 cents per gallon tax rate for motor vehicle and special fuels, which was scheduled to revert to a 17 cents per gallon rate July 1, 2000.

House Bill No. 1183 increases the rate of motor vehicle fuels and special fuels taxes from 20 cents to 21 cents per gallon July 1, 1999.

House Bill No. 1462 reduces the shrinkage allowance for fuel suppliers, distributors, and retailers from a maximum of one percent to a maximum of .5 percent. The bill eliminates refunds of special fuels taxes for nonhighway purposes and initiates a "buy right" provision under which nonhighway users must buy and use dyed special fuel, which is subject to the reduced rate of two percent. The bill creates administrative fees for the owner or operator of a licensed motor vehicle found to contain dyed special fuel and which is being used on a highway. The administrative fees range from $250 for the first violation to $5,000 for a fourth and subsequent violation occurring within three years. Citations for unlawful use of dyed fuel on highways are to be issued by the Highway Patrol and collected by the Tax Commissioner. The Tax Commissioner may waive the administrative fees for good cause.

House Bill No. 1019 extends for two years, through December 31, 2001, an additional one cent per gallon withheld from agricultural purpose fuel tax refunds and retained in the highway tax distribution fund.

TELECOMMUNICATIONS TAXES

Senate Bill No. 2015 amends several provisions of the telecommunications carrier gross receipts tax laws to provide for audit, appeal, assessment, and refund similar to laws for other types of taxes. The bill allows taxpayers six months to bring a district court challenge to an assessment made by the State Board of Equalization. The bill eliminates the taxable status of a hospital, hotel, motel, or similar place of temporary accommodation selling telecommunications service to patients or guests. The bill requires a telecommunications carrier to identify revenue receipts from other carriers to assist the Tax Commissioner in identifying all telecommunications service resellers doing business in the state. The bill requires a telecommunications carrier that provides service to pay telephones owned by other companies to provide a list of those pay telephone companies to the Tax Commissioner. The bill eliminates a requirement for notice of tentative assessment of telecommunications carrier gross receipts taxes. The bill provides for excusing payments of a tax liability of less than $5.

House Bill No. 1108 (vetoed) contained the same provisions amending telecommunications carrier gross receipts tax laws that ultimately were passed in Senate Bill No. 2015 plus a provision to make clear that Internet access service or similar service would be included in the definition of "telecommunications service" subject to the gross receipts tax. This bill was vetoed by the Governor, who expressed objection to inclusion of Internet access service in taxable telecommunications service.

Senate Bill No. 2101 provides that the $8.4 million per taxable year of net telecommunications carrier gross receipts tax revenues allocated to political subdivisions under 1997 amendments to North Dakota Century Code Section 57-34-05 must be deposited in a special fund in the state treasury and any excess amount must be deposited in the state general fund. The bill provides that by March 1 of each year the Tax Commissioner shall certify for payment to the State Treasurer the amount due to each county from telecommunications carrier gross receipts taxes.

Senate Bill No. 2318 provides that a city or county that desires to increase the rate of a previously approved excise tax on telephone access lines for emergency 911 service must present a new ballot question regarding the proposed increase and obtain approval of a majority of electors voting on the question.

Senate Bill No. 2307 (vetoed) would have imposed a fee of 40 cents per month on each commercial mobile radio service (cellular and other wireless service) telephone service number in the state. Twenty-five cents per month of the fee would have been allocated to political subdivisions operating a public safety answering point (911 service) in equal shares. Remaining revenues would have been allocated among political subdivisions operating the emergency services communication system based on the proportion of state population served but these revenues would have been required to be held in escrow until the recipient political subdivision began implementation of Phase I or Phase II of enhanced 911 wireless service as defined by the Federal Communications Commission. The bill would have established an Enhanced 911 Wireless Service Planning Committee, with the directive of developing proposed legislation for implementation of a statewide plan regarding enhanced 911 wireless service and fees, administration, and allocation of revenues. This bill was vetoed by the Governor.

ENERGY TAXES

House Bill No. 1454 changes the rate of sales tax for coal not subject to the coal severance tax from six cents per million British thermal units to 75 cents per ton. The bill also repeals the coal severance tax refund for coal burned in small boilers, effective July 1, 2003.

House Bill No. 1203 changes the allocation of oil and gas gross production taxes from unidentified sources from being allocated to the county with the least production tax revenues to being allocated among all counties in the same proportion that total gross production tax revenues are allocated.

House Bill No. 1107 provides that oil and gas gross production tax is not collected or refunded if the amount to be collected or refunded is less than $5. The bill also substitutes the Office of Management and Budget for the State Auditor to receive and pay oil and gas gross production tax refund claims.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS TAXES

House Bill No. 1383 allows a financial institution or group of financial institutions to establish a corporation or limited company to operate a housing development fund. The bill allows a credit against a financial institution's taxes equal to the difference between the participating financial institution's share of interest earned on a loan from the fund and the amount the institution would have earned by applying an interest rate of 300 basis points more than a comparable treasury security rate. Aggregate credits for all financial institutions are limited to $750,000 per calendar year. Credit claimed for projects within each county must be identified and the county share of allocations of financial institution taxes is to be proportionately reduced.

TOBACCO TAXES

House Bill No. 1082 increases the minimum number of cigarettes that must be contained in a package sold or distributed in this state from five to 20. The bill creates a minimum of 0.60 ounces of tobacco for packages for roll-your-own tobacco sold or distributed in this state. The bill prohibits a dealer, distributor, or other person from selling or distributing in this state any tobacco product previously exported from the United States.

Senate Bill No. 2103 eliminates the requirement of a special stamp to be affixed to a package of cigarettes not subject to tobacco tax because it is sold to an enrolled tribal member. The bill changes the due date for tobacco tax returns from the 10th to the 15th day of the month following the end of a calendar quarter or month, depending on which filing schedule the licensee must follow. Penalties and interest are made uniform under the tobacco products tax at five percent of tax due or $5, whichever is greater, plus interest of one percent per month.

MISCELLANEOUS

Senate Bill No. 2006 increases the salary of the State Tax Commissioner from $55,464 to $58,262 beginning July 1, 1999; $59,428 beginning July 1, 2000; and $66,282 beginning January 1, 2001. The bill also provides a standing appropriation to the Tax Commissioner for payment of fees due under a contract with a collection or credit agency.

Senate Bill No. 2155 provides that if the corporate officers or governors or managers of a limited liability company elect not to be personally liable for state taxes, the corporation or limited liability company must make a cash deposit or post with the Tax Commissioner a bond or undertaking equal to the estimated annual tax liability of the corporation or limited liability company. This provision was added under the tobacco products tax, income tax, sales and use tax, motor vehicle fuel tax, and special fuel tax.

House Bill No. 1180 corrected several statutory references from the central notice system to the central indexing system maintained by the Secretary of State for tax liens.

Senate Bill No. 2360 eliminates the requirement for state officers to post a bond, including the provision in Title 57 relating to the bond of the Tax Commissioner.

House Bill No. 1375 allows the owner of a park model trailer to pay a motor vehicle registration fee of $20 per calendar year and be exempt from taxation as a mobile home if it is used only for seasonal or recreational living quarters and not as primary residence and if it is located in a trailer park or campground.

House Bill No. 1109 eliminates obsolete references to estate tax filings with the Tax Commissioner.

Townships

Summary of Bills Enacted by 1999 Legislative Assembly

This memorandum summarizes 1999 legislation primarily affecting North Dakota Century Code Title 58. Bills primarily affecting other titles may also affect this title, and relevant provisions of those bills are summarized in this memorandum.

Senate Bill No. 2355 provides that a township zoning regulation or restriction may not prohibit or prevent the use of land or buildings for farming or ranching or any of the normal incidents of farming. The bill defines "farming or ranching" as cultivating land for production of agricultural crops or livestock, or raising, feeding, or producing livestock, poultry, milk, or fruit. The bill allows a board of township supervisors to regulate the nature and scope of concentrated feeding operations, but provides that if a regulation would impose a substantial economic burden on a concentrated feeding operation in existence before August 1, 1999, the board of township supervisors must declare that the regulation is ineffective with respect to any such concentrated feeding operation.

The bill prohibits a board of township supervisors from establishing regulations that would prohibit the reasonable diversification or expansion of a farming or ranching operation.

House Bill No. 1167 requires township zoning regulations and restrictions to provide for emergency management. The bill defines "emergency management" as a comprehensive integrated system at all levels of government and in the private sector which provides for the development and maintenance of an effective capability to mitigate, prepare for, respond to, and recover from known and unforeseen hazards or situations, caused by an act of nature or man, which may threaten, injure, damage, or destroy lives, property, or our environment.

Senate Bill No. 2238 removes the requirement that three days' notice be provided for special township meetings held on the call of the township clerk.

Senate Bill No. 2045 removes the authority of a board of township supervisors to act as board of health and provides that a board of township supervisors may request assistance from a county or district board of health or the State Department of Health.

House Bill No. 1149 provides that the criteria for challenging the right of a person to vote under the general election law is the criteria to be used when challenging a person's right to vote at any township meeting. The bill also specifies in the general election law that a person offering to vote may be challenged if the person offering to vote does not meet the age or citizenship requirements, has never voted in the precinct before and fails to provide reasonable evidence of residency, or does not meet the residency requirements provided under law.

House Bill No. 1044 removes references to the twentieth century with respect to the township tax assessment form.

If a request for a hearing is not made, the state engineer, after considering the additional comments, is required to issue a final decision. If a request for a hearing is made or if the state engineer determines a hearing is necessary to obtain additional information to evaluate the application or to receive public comment, the state engineer is required to hold a hearing. If two or more municipal or public use water facilities request the hearing to be held locally, the state engineer is required to hold the hearing in the county seat in the county in which the proposed water appropriation site is located.
